NEW FACULTY JOIN USD SCHOOL OF NURSING

Appointments of new faculty to the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing, University of San Diego, for the 1983-84 academic year have been announced by Dr. Irene S. Palmer, dean of the School.

Perri J. Bomar, R.N., B.S., M.S., Ph.D., will join the faculty as associate professor. Prior to joining USD she was associate professor of nursing in the graduate program in Family Health Nursing at the University of Akron, Ohio, the institution from which she holds the doctorate in education with cognates in educational administration and family ecology. Widely published and active in professional organizations, she is a member of the American Nurses Association, American Association of the American College of Obstetricians, Panel of American Women, and Midwest Nursing Research Society.

Santa Carol Houggard, R.N., B.S.N., will serve the School as instructor for the current academic year. A registered nurse, Houggard has been with the North County Health Services and the Mountain Health Project. As a USD student, she developed the first Health Awareness Day, which has since become an annual event. Houggard is completing the Master of Science in Nursing at the School. She holds memberships in the American Nurses Association, California Nurses Association,
